

Introduction

Zique Solutions began as a resume writing and interview coaching service in June 2013. Since then it has attracted a large client base through effective social media and general marketing campaigns. Zique Solutions' point of difference is based on availability, quality work, post payment service and guarantee. As such, the service has proved to be successful while yielding positive client reviews.

Real Estate Copywriting

Writing a persuasive script for a property marketing campaign can be tricky if copywriting isn't your niche. Listing and selling is what you do best; unless you're an aspiring journalist or editor, producing copy should be the least of your concerns.

Why would our copywriting service benefit you?

- We provide persuasive custom copywriting. With real estate experience, industry jargon is a no brainer. Therefore you will maintain a professional image despite an outsourced service.
- We save you time. Especially if writing isn't your forte.
- The copy will captivate potential buyers to read all the details. This ensures the best chance of them making an enquiry. This could even convert a researching person into a listing because of "your" advertising skills!
- It's inexpensive (see below) and you can write it off on tax!

“We save you time.”

Introductory Price - $30

This introductory offer is valid for the first 20 clients, so be quick! The price includes:

- Compelling copy for your property marketing campaign.
- A smart and catchy headline.
- A consultation to get property details for accurate copy.

It's as simple and convenient as that!

“First Job Free” Guarantee – No Catches!

We do not believe in paying for a service that does not work, nor should you. That's why for every new client, the first job is free. If for any reason you're not happy with the work, there is nothing to lose. This confident guarantee is our way of promoting a “try before you buy” approach.

Sound Like a Convenient Idea?
